The Singers of Southern High

Saturday | November 8, 2014 | 11:00 a.m.

Tom DiRenzo and Gene Alessandrini (both of the Southern Class of 1955) will be presenting "The Singers of Southern High" at the Charles Santore Library on Saturday November 8, 2014 at 11:00am. The presentation features the many famous and some not-so-famous singers who attended South Philadelphia High School. DiRenzo and Alessandrini will speak about the lives and accomplishments of the singers, including interesting anecdotes and numerous selected video and audio clips of their music.

The following entertainers will be included in the free presentation: DANNY CEDRONE, CHUBBY CHECKER, FRANKIE AVALON, MARIO LANZA, AL ALBERTS, FRED DIODATI, CHARLIE GRACIE, BUDDY GRECO, FRANK TENAGLIA, FABIAN FORTE, EDDIE FISHER, GEORGIE SHAW, JAMES DARREN, FRANK GUARRERA, JODIE SANDS, SUNNY GALE, and MARIAN ANDERSON.

Video clips of Joey Bishop and Jack Klugman will also be featured. Prior to the presentation, there will be several displays with biographical information about Southern High's famous singers.
